

CZECH SPECIALTY BEERS

GOLDEN LAGER

Golden Lager is characterised by a deep golden-amber colour and a rich sugary malt body. It has strong hops bitterness in the finish which originates in its healthy dose of hops from Žatec.

- 160 Bernard – Humpolec Gorgeous golden lager, a so-called 'sváteční ležák' ("festive lager") with an intense citrus-like aroma

HALF-DARK

'Polotmavé' is a single beer that is brewed to a reddish, half dark color. Unlike Pilsner-style brews, which usually require extremely soft water, half darks can be made with a higher carbonate content and can include caramel and dark malt to various degrees, as well as Pilsner Malt.

- 160 Primátor 13 – Náchod According to the Beer Connoisseur, 'One of the best Semi-dark beers available in our country'

WHEAT BEER

'Wheat beer' – once called 'bílé pivo', or 'white beer', is equivalent to the Belgian wit. Before the invention of the Pilsner style in 1842, the Czech lands were famous for this style. Today only few bottlers, (Herold and Primátor, most significantly) sell 'pšeničné pivo'.

- 160 Primátor Weizenbier Clove scented – it comes with significant yeast sediment. Three times awarded as the best Weizen beer in the Czech Republic

UNIQUE CZECH SPECIALTIES

- 190 Beer Champ – Praha Fantastic gently sparkling lager with beautiful finish of champagne yeast
