Christmas & New Year's Eve 2009

Christmas & New Year's Eve 2009 at Mandarin Oriental, Prague

Prague is a magical city year round but never more so than during the winter holidays. Dressed in festive lights, with charming cobbled streets and holiday music ringing through its churches and concert halls, the city becomes a fairy tale brought to life. Come enjoy the city's old-world charm and opt for a splendid New Year's Eve to ensure that 2010 starts on a high note.

Situated in the heart of Malá Strana, Mandarin Oriental, Prague comprises buildings that began life more than five hundred years ago as a monastery. Today, the hotel's distinctive charm and the staff's unparalleled service guarantee a memorable holiday experience. The hotel's 99 guestrooms and suites, celebrated restaurant and frequently awarded spa combine understated contemporary design with authentic historical detail, providing guests a true sense of place.

This holiday season, we look forward to delighting you with our festive gourmet offerings as well as our legendarily warm and caring service.
