

Kimono Salon

Kimono Salon—Experience Japanese Tradition

At Mandarin Oriental, Tokyo we take pleasure in playing tribute to the traditions of our Nihonbashi neighbourhood, which has served as the kimono fabric production centre of Tokyo since the Edo era.

As part of our tradition-laden Kimono Salon, we invite you to come to the hotel dressed in Kimono to share treasured rituals such as tea ceremonies, musical performances and more with other connoisseurs of Japanese culture.

<Kimono Salon Event Schedule>

Second Thursday of the scheduled month

1 to 3pm

JPY 12,000 per person 30 persons

9 July 2009: Summer, wearing Yukata, a consummate expression of Edo chic

A lecture on the history and elegance of Yukata by Fumio Ogawa, owner of a well-established dye house in Nihonbashi.

10 September 2009: Early Autumn, the art of wearing lined Kimono

Noted Kimono stylist, Nobuko Ohkubo presents the art of dressing in lined Kimono.

12 November 2009: Late Autumn, Shamisen salon concert

A salon concert of traditional and contemporary Japanese music played by the Shamisen player Kohdai Minoda.

14 January 2010: Early Spring, the perfect hair and makeup for Kimono

Renowned makeup artist Kensuke leads a presentation of hairstyles and makeup suited to the Kimono.

*The salon will be held in Japanese only.

*A prior deposit to our bank account is required by the time of registration.

*The time, date, and lesson content may change without prior written notice.
Kindly confirm at the time of your registration.

*Above prices are inclusive of 5% consumption tax and 10% service charge.

Reservations and Information Mandarin Oriental, Tokyo

Telephone: +81 (3) 3270 8800