Beers

7 dollars

Hofbräu München, Hefe Weizen

A clean, lightly citrusy ale from the ancient brewery in Munich. Absolutely refreshing.

Gaffel, Kölsch

Actually an ale; Gaffel comes off as a unique, creamy lager-style that can only be brewed in Cologne.

Brooklyn Brown Ale

Classic, nutty, caramelized Brown from NYC; crafted by the always inspiring Garrett Oliver.

Old Rasputin, Russian Imperial Stout

Rich, with bitter coffee notes; the anti-Guinness stout; never say die!

Oskar Blues, Dale's Pale Ale

America's first hand-canned, craft beer!!! Hoppy and malty, with a bracing finish. It's insanely good AND it's in a can.

Pilsner Urquell

The original Pilsner; crisp, clean wonderful and never disappointing; the lightest beer on the list.

Unibroue, Chambly Noir, Black Ale

The opaque blackness belies the light, refreshing body and clean notes of roasted coffee beans, toast and toffee.

St Bernardus, Pater #6, Abbey Ale

This Belgian ale features sweet, malty aromas, a gorgeous frothy head and flavors of nutty, caramelized malt.

Single Malt Whisky

Cask Bottlings

We proudly offer these rare, unfiltered, non-colored bottlings from Murray McDavid and The Alchemist.

These represent the purest expression of whisky from some of the finest distilleries in Scotland. We prefer these bottlings because coloring only darkens a whisky to the eye and chill filtering actually strips the whisky of its natural oils and flavors.

Our tastings have found these to be truest and cleanest when served with a small splash of filtered water.
